Tap-ins and lip-outs

The Forecaddie recently got a chance to play the highly touted Sebonack Golf Club in Southampton, N.Y. The course isn't set to open until June 2006, but that didn't stop The Man Out Front, who came away mightily impressed. With adjoining neighbors such as National Golf Links of America and Shinnecock Hills Golf Club, Sebonack is starting out in pretty heady company. Add to that the unusual design team of Jack Nicklaus and Tom Doak (imagine those conversations!) and you have some intense expectations to meet. Of course it helps having waterfront holes on Great Peconic Bay and firm, links-like turf. The Forecaddie spent a lot of time figuring out which features were Nicklaus' and which were Doak's - and came away convinced it was a true collaboration. Next up for the Man Out Front: Figuring how to join. Initiation fee is rumored to be solidly in the middle six figures. It is, after all, the Hamptons.
